

Regulatory Fairness Forum for Small Business

Wednesday, February 20, 2008

Chattanooga Convention Center — Chattanooga, TN

Small business owners will have an opportunity to discuss issues regarding Federal regulatory compliance and enforcement during this Forum.

Have you or a small business owner you know been unfairly fined or penalized by a Federal government agency, or is a Federal agency enforcement action imminent?

WHO: SBA National Ombudsman Nicholas Owens, members of the Region IV Regulatory Fairness Board and representatives of Federal regulatory agencies will hear issues and comments about Federal regulatory enforcement and compliance actions. Small business owners, representatives of trade associations and community and business leaders are invited to participate, comment about compliance and enforcement of regulations by Federal agencies and to learn more about the impact of federal regulations on small businesses.

WHAT: To create a more cooperative regulatory environment among Federal agencies and small businesses, Congress has directed the SBA and the National Ombudsman to hold Regulatory Fairness forums across the nation. Issues addressed at this forum will be directed to the appropriate Federal regulatory agency for a higher-level review of fairness than that in the enforcement action. In many instances, the National Ombudsman's action has resulted in Federal agencies reducing or waiving penalties and/or compliance actions in cases of unfair or excessive regulatory enforcement.

WHERE: Chattanooga Convention Center, 1150 Carter Street, Room 20, Chattanooga, TN, 37401

WHEN: 9:30AM – 11:00AM, Wednesday, February 20, 2008

Small business owners may testify regarding federal regulatory actions taken against them during the forum by registering in advance. Please call David Tiller, Public Information Officer at 615-736-7176 at the SBA's Tennessee District Office or send an e-mail to david.tiller@sba.gov
